Please remember to RSVP BY 10:00am on the Monday morning prior to our gatherings as numbers must be in by then for catering purposes. We have to pay for numbers given at that time. If for some reason you have booked but can't come, please find a substitute or else arrange to pay at a later date. Nightly cost for the period of this program is $25.

Huge ongoing thanks to our friend Ayesha Hilton. Ayesha, who originally designed and still manages our website, now lives in Ballarat together with her daughter Grace and partner Nick.

Thanks also to all our Netters who have contributed to our program and gatherings over the years. Remember, new Netters are always welcome. It's a great way to network and make friends.
